STATE BLACK HERITAGE COUNCIL HOSTS WORKSHOP FOR NONPROFITS

Alabama's nonprofits share many successes and challenges. An upcoming workshop in Marion presents ways groups can strengthen their nonprofit organizations. The Black Heritage Council's Community and Preservation Forum provides training in the areas of nonprofit marketing, fundraising, and organizational development. It will also introduce a variety of preservation programs.

What: Free workshop for nonprofit organizations.

When: Saturday, September 21, 2013, 10am-4pm.

Where: Historic Lincoln School, 216 Lincoln Street, Marion, Alabama.

Who: Nonprofit preservation groups, historical societies, boards of trustees, church members, educators/education administrators, and other interested persons.

For more information and the agenda, go to <http://preserveala.org/blackheritagecouncilforum>.

Registration: Destiny Williams at (334) 230-2678 or destiny.williams@preserveala.org.

Sponsored by the Alabama Historical Commission's Black Heritage Council and the Lincolnite Club.

The Alabama Historical Commission protects, preserves, and interprets Alabama's historic places and is the State Historic Preservation Office.
